ABOUT THIS TIME LOOK OUT FOR THESE REMARKS.

1. Christmas is getting to be such a tax!
2. It is so hard to think of anything to give a man!
3. The trouble is—she can buy anything in the world she wants for herself.
4. If Tom only smoked! There are so many "Gifts for Smokers."
5. I'm sure I don't know what it's for, but it looks pretty, so I guess I'll take it.
6. Two dollars? What a pity! It's just exactly the thing, but I can't get off with less than $5 for her.
7. No. I make all of mine myself. It shows so much more love, I think.
8. Won't you be relieved when it's all over?
9. Just go and get anything you want for yourself and the children and charge it. But don't bother me!
10. It doesn't seem in the least like Christmas this year.
11. Next year I shan't send one earthly thing but postal cards.
12. Will you look at that! From a woman with her money!

SOME DANVILLE MURDER JUICE.

(Danville Advocate.)
A young man was found on the concrete steps of the Second Presbyterian church Wednesday night. The police were called, and the young man contended that he had gone to bed and did not care to be disturbed. It was later discovered that he had loaded up on blind tiger liquor. Had he not been discovered it is probable that he would have died of exposure.

GERMANY AFTER HORSES.

Negotiations for the purchase of 30,000 horses and 12,000 mules, which it is said are to be sent to Germany, are under way in Texas. It was stated that the animals were to be shipped from that state to Genoa, Italy, but local dealers expressed the belief that they would be forwarded from there to Germany. It was said European agents would spend $3,000,000 for Texas horses and mules.

AFTER MUCH BOMBARDMENT.

(Paducah News-Democrat.)
Messrs. George H. Goodman and Will J. Gilbert terminated an extravagantly successful hunting season Wednesday, during which they were afield eight hours, covered 2,100 acres of plowed ground, fired about 100 rounds of ammunition and brought down a grand total of three quail.

GETTING NO BETTER FAST.

(Paris Democrat.)
You remember what a disagreeable day Wednesday was—just as disagreeable as it could be. Well, one of the office force asked a colored man: "Harry, what about the weather out there?" "Well," said Harry, "if it keeps on it's goin' to get bad."

357,598 PAY INCOME TAX.

Washington.—The first complete compilation of returns under the income tax law was made public in the annual report of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. It showed returns for the collection year of 1913 by 357,598 individuals paying taxes aggregating $27,233,535.

AS THE GROCER SEES IT.

(Lexington Leader.)
"I'll give you a slogan," said John Hutchison, the grocer. "If those who ride in automobiles would pay what they owe to the people who can not afford automobiles there would be more of us riding in automobiles."

HARLAN IS SPREADING ITSELF.

(Pineville Sun.)
The City Council of Harlan last week passed an ordinance adding about 4,000 acres to the city limits. If the ordinance stands Harlan will have a population of nearly 5,000.
